(Sections 10 and 19 of the Companies' Creditors Arrangement Act, R.S.C. 1985, c. C-36)

TO THE HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE GAÉTAN DUMAS J.S.C. OF THE SUPERIOR COURT, SITTING IN COMMERCIAL DIVISION, IN AND FOR THE DISTRICT OF SAINT-FRANÇOIS, THE PETITIONERS RESPECTFULLY SUBMIT AS FOLLOWS:

A. OVERVIEW

1. On March 31, 2014, this Court rendered judgment granting a motion by Montreal, Maine & Atlantic Canada Co. (“MM&A” or “Debtor”) for an order approving a process to solicit claims and requiring claims to be filed by June 13, 2014, unless otherwise authorized by this Court.
2. On April 4, 2014, the Honourable Mr. Justice Gaétan Dumas J.S.C. made the following orders:
 - a) an order requiring claims to be filed by June 13, 2014 (the “Claims Bar Date”), unless otherwise authorized by this Court (the “Claims Procedure Order”);
 - b) an order appointing the Petitioners and their counsel as representatives (the “Class Representatives”) in these proceedings of Class Members (as defined in the Representation Order).
3. The Claims Procedure Order established June 13, 2014 as the Claims Bar Date¹ and expressly contemplated that this Court would retain jurisdiction over the process as a whole, including claims filed after the Claims Bar Date (see para. 6 of the Claims Procedure Order, as well as para. 34 of the related March 31, 2014 Judgment).
4. The Representation Order appointed the Class Representatives as representatives of the Class Members (as defined in Appendix “A” attached to the Representation Order) which, among other things, authorized the Class Representatives to:
 - a) assist Class Members and their representatives with the completion of their individual proofs of claim;
 - b) deal, on behalf of the Class Members, with any government ministry, department or agency;
 - c) file such proof of claim (in addition to the representative claim on behalf of wrongful death victims) as may be permitted by further order of the Court; and,
 - d) seek advice and direction of the Court in respect of the discharge of their powers, responsibilities and duties.
5. Subsequent to the Claims Bar Date, the Class Representatives brought a motion, seeking authorization to file certain claims which had not been submitted prior to the Claims Bar Date (the “June 2014 Claims”) and seeking directions with respect to a further group of potential additional claims which had not been filed prior to the Claims Bar Date (the “Additional Claims”).

¹ An Amended Claims Procedure Order dated June 13, 2014 extended the Claims Bar Date for Wrongful Death Claims to July 14, 2014.

6. This motion was heard on May 20, 2015. At the motion, counsel for the Class Representatives presented this Honourable Court with individual affidavits sworn by 127 claimants seeking to have their late claims filed.
7. By judgment issued by this Honourable Court on May 27, 2015 ("the May 27 Judgment), 127 of the June 2014 Claims were allowed to be filed for those claimants who had filed explanatory affidavits.
8. With respect to the relief requested in relation to the Additional Claims, this Court determined that it could not rule on the admissibility of any such future-filed claims, nor could it delegate its discretion in this matter to the Monitor, as the discretion at issue was a non-delegable judicial discretion.
9. Nonetheless, this Court indicated that if such further claims were submitted, they would be reviewed by the Court according to the relevant criteria.

10. In its Conclusions section of the Judgment, this Court Stated:

- [113] ACCUEILLE les requêtes pour être autorisé à déposer une preuve de réclamation hors délai des requérantes Royal & Sun Alliance du Canada, société d'assurance, Groupe Ledor inc. mutuelle d'assurance, Société d'assurance général Northbridge, l'Unique assurances générales inc., La Garantie compagnie d'assurance de l'Amérique du Nord et La Capitale, assurances générales inc.;
- [114] DÉCLARE que ces preuves de réclamations devront être comptabilisées et traitées dans la catégorie des dommages matériels et économiques;
- [115] ACCUEILLE la requête pour autorisation de produire des preuves de réclamations additionnelles des représentants des membres du groupe;
- [116] DÉCLARE que les 127 preuves de réclamations produites dans les volumes 1 à 5 des représentants des membres devront être acceptées par le contrôleur comme ayant été produites valablement;
- [117] DÉCLARE que le présent jugement ne doit pas être interprété comme signifiant que ces preuves de réclamations ont été analysées et acceptées par le contrôleur;
- [118] RETOURNE les preuves de réclamations au contrôleur pour qu'il les analyse sur la même base que toutes les autres preuves de réclamations reçues;
- [119] DÉCLARE que les preuves de réclamations faisant double emploi ne devront évidemment pas être comptabilisées plus d'une fois;
- [120] DÉCLARE que si un créancier ayant été payé par une compagnie d'assurance a produit une preuve de réclamation incluant les sommes reçues par la compagnie d'assurance, le montant reçu devra être réduit pour le créancier, mais ajouté à la compagnie d'assurance si celle-ci produit une preuve de réclamation tardive;
- [121] Le tout SANS FRAIS.

11. By correspondence to this Court dated June 3, 2015, counsel for the Class Representatives, Mr. Joel P. Rochon, advised of certain matters arising from the May 27, 2015 Judgment and which required clarification (and possibly a future motion) including, inter alia, that:

- a) there were minors whose late-filed claims were identified and addressed by their parents/guardians amongst the 127 affidavits related to the June 2014 Claims, however, the May 27, 2015 Judgment did not expressly permit these claims to be allowed and, as such, the Class Representatives sought to have the claims of those minor claimants allowed;
- b) a further 12 affidavits of previously identified June 2014 Claims, which had not been executed prior to the May 27, 2015 Judgment, had now been signed and the Class Representatives sought to have these claims allowed on the same basis as the other June 2014 Claims; and
- c) advising the Court that counsel for the Class Representatives had been following up with the further additional claimants, obtaining information about their circumstances and, where advisable, preparing and having affidavits executed.

12. In response, this Court indicated that a formal motion should be brought.

B. ORDER SOUGHT

13. The Class Representatives now seek an order:

- a) allowing the further June 2014 Claims (both those of the minor claimants identified in EXHIBIT R-1 and the 12 claimants whose executed affidavits were received after the May 27 Judgment, as identified in EXHIBIT R-2); and
- b) authorizing the filing of the further additional claims ("Further Additional Claims") described in Exhibits R-3, R-4, R-5, R-6, R-7 and R-8 to this motion.

C. GROUNDS FOR THIS MOTION

14. A CCAA court is entitled to exercise its discretion to authorize late-filed claims, provided it is in the interest of overall fairness and the underlying purpose of the CCAA to do so and provided that various established criteria have been satisfied.

15. As noted in the May 27, 2015 Judgment, there are a number of established criteria to be considered in deciding whether to allow late-filed claims including, inter alia:

1. Was the delay caused by inadvertence and if so, did the claimant act in good faith?

2. What is the effect of permitting the claim in terms of the existence and impact of any relevant prejudice caused by the delay?
 3. If relevant prejudice is found can it be alleviated by attaching appropriate conditions to an order permitting late filing?
 4. If relevant prejudice is found which cannot be alleviated, are there any other considerations which may nonetheless warrant an order permitting late filing?
16. The factors highlighted in the May 27 Judgment, are not exhaustive and that the consideration of these factors is always a fact-specific exercise of judicial discretion.
17. First among the factors to be considered in allowing late claims is the good faith of the claimants and the absence of prejudice to other interested parties.
18. In the motion to this Court dated April 27, 2015, the Class Representatives set out an extensive list of facts and circumstances relevant to these criteria, relating both to the group of June 2014 claims and to the additional claims which arose prior to the date of that motion which are the subject of the within motion (see paras. 7-11 and 14 of the Further Fresh as Amended Motion of the Court Appointed Representatives of Class Members for an Order Authorizing the Filing of Additional/Late Claims). The relevant facts and circumstances included both the steps taken by counsel to the Class Representatives to inform the citizens of Lac-Mégantic and the reasons why some of the residents of Lac-Mégantic failed to advance their claims prior to the Claims Bar Date.
19. Counsel for the Class Representatives advised the Court at the hearing of the motion on May 20, 2015 that they had been contacted by an additional 300-400 individuals, who had signed up on the class action website, but had not, as of then, provided sworn affidavits.
20. In an effort to protect these class members, the Class Representatives delivered a letter and questionnaire to class members to complete. The questionnaire asked that each individual describe the nature of their claims and the reason why they had not submitted a claim prior to the Claims Bar Date. This letter and questionnaire, identified as Exhibit R-9, was sent out to approximately 650 individual class members.
21. The Class Representatives made no guarantee to these class members that they would be able to obtain permission from the Court to file the Additional Claims, but that they would make best efforts to do so and would bring a motion.
22. Following the receipt of the detailed questionnaires, draft affidavits were completed. Telephone interviews were also conducted to gather any missing information. In total, interviews were conducted of 575 individual class members in order to determine the circumstances of their claims and the reason why their claims had not been submitted in a timely fashion prior to the Claims Bar date.
23. Draft affidavits were then prepared reflecting the information provided in the questionnaires and the telephone interviews. Appointments were then made for these individual class members to meet with someone at Daniel Larochele's office who reviewed, in person, the details and circumstances set out in the draft affidavit (including the finalization of the Proof of Claim where applicable) and the affidavit was finalized and sworn at Me. Larochele's office.

24. In the case of approximately a dozen class members residing a substantial distance from Lac Megantic, a similar process was undertaken. The class member would fill out a claim form which would then be reviewed by counsel for accuracy and completeness. Then, an affidavit would be drafted for each class member which was to be sworn in front of a commissioner of oaths.
25. Based on the information provided by these class members in their questionnaires and in follow-up interviews, the 445 Further Additional Claims can be divided into five main categories as regards to the reason why claims were not filed in a timely fashion in advance of the Claims Bar Date:
 - a. New June 2014 Claims. These 45 claimants believed their claims were filed prior to the Claims Bar Date as shown in Exhibit R-3. These claims relate to economic loss and moral damages and are claimants who registered prior to the Claims Bar Date on the class action websites through either Me. Larochele or Me. Orenstein, however, on account of a possibly technical error and/or inadvertence on the part of Class Counsel or agents, were not filed with the Monitor prior to the Claims Bar Date, or for claimants who believed they had registered before the deadline, including cases of minor children where it was previously assumed their claims were filed with those of their parents.
 - b. Claimants who were unaware of the Claims Bar Date or did not Understand the Process. Despite the Class Representatives' best efforts to publicize the class action, the CCAA proceeding and the Claims Bar Date, 187 claimants did not file claims prior to the Claims Bar Date because they were unaware of the Claims Bar Date or did not understand how to file a claim as shown in Exhibit R-4.
 - c. Claimants who Suffered Significant Psychological Trauma. Due to the nature of the psychological injuries suffered after the derailment, 56 claimants did not file claims prior to the Claims Bar Date either because they were suffering extreme psychological effects, or because the extent of their psychological and economic losses did not become apparent under after the Claims Bar Date as shown in Exhibit R-5.
 - d. Claimants Who Mistakenly Believed that They were Not Eligible to File a Claim. Despite the best efforts of all parties to inform the citizens of Lac-Megantic, 121 claimants mistakenly believed that they were not entitled to file a claim or participate in the recovery under the CCAA procedure as shown in Exhibit R-6;
 - e. Other Reasons. An additional 36 claims were not filed on time because claimants were occupied with other health concerns, or due to other personal commitments most often arising from and being associated with personal and/or economic complications caused by the derailment. As a result these individuals were not able to file their claims prior to the Claims Bar Date as shown in Exhibit R-7;

- f. Minor Claimants: 79 minor claimants, whose parents are seeking to file additional claims as set out in the above categories, are shown in Exhibit R-8 for the Court's ease of reference.
- 26. In summary, there are now, 366 affidavits filed on this motion relating to 445 class members (including 79 claims of minor class members whose circumstances are addressed in their parents'/guardians' affidavits) and who seek to have their late claims allowed. This is in addition to the claims of minor children relating to the previous motion and those affidavits received after the previous motion was heard, as set out in Exhibits R-1 and R-2.
- 27. The Plan of Arrangement contemplates distinct categories for distribution, such as "Wrongful Death Claims", "Bodily Injury and Moral Damages Claims", and "Property and Economic Damages Claims", among others.
- 28. The vast majority of the Additional Claims herein fall within the category of "Moral Damages Claims", with a limited number seeking recovery under "Property and Economic Damages Claims". The structure of the Plan of Arrangement is such that there is no possibility of dilution of the claims of creditors having claims in the other categories of claimants, although the filing of the Additional Claims will result in some diluted recoveries in the categories in which they are filed.
- 29. The additional claims appear to be meritorious in the sense that they satisfy the eligibility criteria for the receipt of a distribution under the Amended Plan of Arrangement and Compromise, but they remain subject to rejection under the terms of the Plan by the Monitor in the event that they do not.
- 30. The affidavits filed in support of this motion have provided good faith evidence on behalf of these class members as to their reasons for not having filed prior to the Claims Bar Date.
- 31. Finally, it should be noted that there remain a further 207 class members to whom questionnaires were previously delivered, but who have not, as of this date, contacted counsel for the Class Representatives, but who may eventually attempt to do. If such class members subsequently contact counsel and still wish to advance their individual claims, notwithstanding the passing of the Claims Bar Date, we will thereafter bring a motion for directions from this Court as to how to best address those situations.

FOR THESE REASONS, MAY IT PLEASE THIS HONOURABLE COURT TO:

GRANT the present Motion authorizing the filing of the further June 2014 claims and the Further Additional Claims with the Monitor;

THE WHOLE without costs, unless contested.

AFFIDAVIT OF DANIEL LAROCHELLE

I, the undersigned, Daniel E. Larochelle, attorney, practicing my profession at 5031, boul. Des Vétérans, Lac-Mégantic, Québec, district de Mégantic, solemnly affirm:

1. I am the attorney for the Petitioners in this matter, and a resident of the Town of Lac-Mégantic. I am swearing this affidavit in support of a motion for an order authorizing the filing of certain further additional claims by or on behalf of persons represented by the Petitioners (the "Further Additional Claims")

2. On March 31, 2014, this Court rendered judgment granting a motion by Montreal, Maine & Atlantic Canada Co. ("MM&A" or "Debtor") for an order approving a process to solicit claims and establishing a claims bar date of June 13, 2014 (the "Claims Process").
3. On April 4, 2014, the Honourable Mr. Justice Gaétan Dumas J.S.C. made the following orders:
 - a) an order requiring claims to be filed by June 13, 2014, unless otherwise authorized by this Court (the "Claims Process Order").
 - b) an order appointing the Petitioners as representatives (the "Class Representatives") in these proceedings of Class Members (as defined in the Representation Order) (the "Representation Order").
4. The Claims Process Order established June 13, 2014 as a claims bar date, ("the Claims Bar Date") but contemplates that an individual may still advance a claim after the claims bar date if authorized to do so by this Court.
5. The Representation Order appointed the Class Representatives as representatives of the Class Members (as defined in Appendix "A" attached to the Representation Order) which, among other things, authorized the Class Representatives to:
 - a) assist Class Members and their representatives with the completion of their individual proof of claim;
 - b) deal, on behalf of the Class Members, with any government ministry, department or agency;
 - c) file such proof of claim (in addition to the representative claim on behalf of wrongful death victims) as may be permitted by further order of the Court; and,
 - d) seek advice and direction of the Court in respect of the discharge of their powers, responsibilities and duties.
6. Subsequent to the Claims Bar Date, the Class Representatives brought a motion, seeking authorization to file certain claims which had not been submitted before the Claims Bar Date (the "June 2014 Claims") and seeking directions with respect to a group of potential additional claims which had not been filed prior to the Claims Bar Date (the "Additional Claims").
7. This motion was heard on May 20, 2015. At this motion, counsel for the Class Representatives presented this Honourable Court with individual affidavits sworn by 127 claimants seeking permission to have their late claims filed.

8. By judgment issued by this Honourable Court on May 27, 2015 ("the May 27 Judgment), a total of 127 of the June 2014 Claims were permitted to be filed (relating to claimants who had filed explanatory affidavits).
9. With respect to the previous relief requested in relation to the May 20, 2015 motion to allow certain additional claims, this Court determined that it could not rule on the admissibility of any such future-filed claims, nor could it delegate its discretion in this matter to the Monitor, as the discretion at issue was a non-delegable judicial discretion.
10. This Court nonetheless indicated that if such further claims were submitted in the future, they would be reviewed by the Court according to the relevant criteria providing there was an appropriate evidentiary foundation.
11. By correspondence to this Court dated June 3, 2015, counsel for the Class Representatives, Mr. Joel Rochon, advised of certain matters arising from the May 27 Judgment and which required clarification (and possibly a future formal motion), including, inter alia, that:
 - a) there were minor claimants whose late-filed claims were identified and addressed by their parents/guardians in the 127 affidavits related to the June 2014 Claims, however, the May 27 Judgment did not address these claims and, as such, the Class Representatives sought to have the claims of those minor claimants allowed;
 - b) a further 12 affidavits of previously identified June 2014 Claims which had not been fully executed prior to the May 27 Judgment have now been signed and the Class Representatives sought to have these claims reviewed on the same basis as the other June 2014 Claims; and
 - c) counsel for the Class Representatives had been receiving considerable information from Additional Claimants seeking to advance late claims. Class Counsel was in the process of gathering that information and preparing affidavits to be executed.
12. In response, this Court indicated that a formal motion should be brought.
13. In the motion to this Court dated April 27, 2015, the Class Representatives set out an extensive list of facts and circumstances relevant to these criteria, relating both to the group of June 2014 claims and to the additional claims which arose prior to the date of that motion which are the subject of the within motion (see paras. 7-11 and 14 of the Further Fresh as Amended Motion of the Court Appointed Representatives of Class Members for an Order Authorizing the Filing of Additional/Late Claims). The relevant facts and circumstances included both the steps taken by counsel to the Class Representatives to inform the citizens of Lac-Mégantic and the reasons why some of the citizens of Lac-Mégantic failed to advance their claims prior to the Claims Bar Date.

14. Counsel for the Class Representatives advised the Court at that time that they had been contacted, at that time, by an additional 300-400 individuals, who had signed up on the class action website, but had not as of then, provided sworn affidavits.
15. In an effort to protect these class members, the Class Representatives delivered a letter and questionnaire to class members to complete. The questionnaire asked that each individual describe the nature of their claims and the reason why they had not submitted a claim prior to the Claims Bar Date. This letter and questionnaire, identified as Exhibit R-9, was mailed to approximately 650 class members.
16. The Class Representatives made no representations to these class members that they would be able to get the Additional Claims filed, but that they would bring their claims to the attention of this Court by way of motion.
17. Following receipt of the detailed questionnaires over the course of the last several weeks, draft affidavits were completed. Telephone interviews were also conducted to gather any missing information. In total, interviews were conducted of 575 individual class members in order to determine the circumstances of their claims and the specific reason why their claims had not been submitted in a timely fashion prior to the Claims Bar date.
18. Draft affidavits were then prepared reflecting the information provided in the questionnaires and the telephone interviews. Appointments were then made for these individual class members to meet with someone at my office who reviewed, in person, the details and circumstances set out in the draft affidavit (including the finalization of the Proof of Claim where applicable) and the affidavit was finalized and sworn at my office.
19. In the case of approximately a dozen class members residing a substantial distance from Lac Megantic, a similar process was undertaken. In those circumstances, these out of town class members completed a claim form which was then reviewed by counsel for accuracy and completeness. Then, counsel drafted an affidavit for each class member which was sworn before a notary or a commissioner of oaths.
20. Based on the information provided by class members in their questionnaires and in follow-up interviews, a total of 445 Further Additional Claims were prepared, as supported by corresponding affidavits. These Further Additional Claims can be divided into five main categories as regards to the explanation why claims were not filed in a timely fashion in advance of the Claims Bar Date:
 - a. New June 2014 Claims. These claimants mistakenly believed their claims were filed prior to the Claims Bar Date. Approximately 45 claims as shown in Exhibit R-3 relating to economic loss and moral damages, relate to those claimants who registered prior to the claims bar date on the class action websites, either with my office or Me. Orenstein however, for reasons that are unclear (possibly technical error and/or inadvertence on the part of the Class Representatives or their counsel or agents or mailing delays), were not filed with the Monitor prior to the claims bar date; or for claimants who believed they had registered before the deadline, i.e. in cases where they assumed that minors were automatically registered without their parents (Exhibit R-3);

- b. Claimants who were unaware of the Claims Bar Date or did not understand the Process. According to the affidavit evidence, 187 claims were not filed prior to the claims bar date because class members were unaware of the claims bar date or did not understand how to file a claim (Exhibit R-4);
- c. Claimants who Suffered Significant Psychological Trauma. Due to the nature of the psychological injuries suffered after the derailment, 56 claimants did not file claims prior to the claims bar date either because they were suffering extreme psychological effects, or because the extent of their psychological and economic losses did not become apparent under after the claims bar date (Exhibit R-5);
- d. Claimants Who Did Not Believe They were Eligible. 121 claims were not filed on time because the claimants believed they were not eligible to be class members/participate in the CCAA proceeding (Exhibit R-6);
- e. Other Reasons. 36 claims were not filed on time because claimants were occupied with other health concerns, or due to other personal commitments (most often arising from and being consequent to personal and/or economic complications caused by the derailment), were not able to file their claims prior to the claims bar date (Exhibit R-7)
- f. Minor Claimants: 79 minor claimants, whose parents are seeking to file additional claims as set out in the above categories, are shown in Exhibit R-8 for the Court's ease of reference.

21. Each of these claimants seeking to have their claim accepted now have also signed individual affidavits explaining why each claim was not filed prior to the claims bar date.
22. The Plan of Arrangement contemplates distinct categories for distribution, such as "Wrongful Death Claims", "Bodily Injury and Moral Damages Claims", and "Property and Economic Damages Claims", among others.

23. The vast majority of the Additional Claims fall within the category of "Moral Damages Claims", with a few "Economic Loss Claims", and the structure of the Plan of Arrangement is such that there is no possibility of dilution of the claims of creditors having claims in the other categories of claimants, although the filing of the Additional Claims may dilute recoveries in the categories in which they are filed.
24. The Additional Claims appear to be meritorious in the sense that they satisfy the criteria for the receipt of a distribution under the proposed restructuring plan (and they remain subject to disallowance in the event that they do not);
25. The Additional Claims can be admitted only for the purposes of distribution and not for voting, so that the filing of the Additional Claims will not unduly delay the Plan of Arrangement.
26. Creditors having the Additional Claims will suffer prejudice by virtue of losing any recourse against the third parties participating in the Plan of Arrangement.
27. I, along with Joel Rochon, have spoken to the Class Representatives, Guy Ouellet, Serge Jacques and Louis-Serges Parent. They have advised us to bring this motion to allow late claims to be filed in the categories described above.
28. That I have taken cognizance of the attached Motion of the Class Representatives for an Order Authorizing Additional Claims (the "Motion") and the facts alleged therein are true.
29. The Motion is made in good faith.

AND I HAVE SIGNED

Daniel E. Larochelle

Solemnly affirmed before me at Lac-Mégantic
this 15th day of September, 2015

Isabel Nadeau, Commissioner of oaths for the Province of Quebec

PAR COURRIER SEULEMENT

Monsieur, Madame

Objet: Réclamations Tardives Référer au no. De dossier: 13138

Madame, Monsieur,

Nous vous écrivons suite à l'inscription que vous avez faite récemment sur le site internet du recours collectif de Lac-Mégantic. Je dois vous informer que votre inscription a été reçue après la date butoir du 13 juin 2014. Pour votre information, cette date a fait l'objet de plusieurs annonces et notamment par l'envoi d'une lettre à tous les résidents de Lac-Mégantic.

Étant après le 13 juin 2014, votre réclamation est considérée comme tardive et devra faire l'objet d'une autorisation auprès du tribunal compétent. Il s'agit d'une démarche longue et compliquée. Afin de déterminer si vous pouvez toujours déposer une réclamation dans la procédure de la LACC après la date butoir, nous désirons amasser plus d'informations au sujet de votre demande.

A cet égard, veuillez trouver ci-joint un questionnaire concernant votre expérience personnelle suite au déraillement, et les circonstances expliquant votre retard. Ainsi, si vous vous êtes inscrits au recours collectif après la date butoir à cause de circonstances extraordinaires, (par exemple un choc post traumatique de longue durée), vous devez remplir le questionnaire. Il est fortement suggéré que vous remplissiez et retournez le questionnaire dans les plus brefs délais.

Vu le fait que votre demande est tardive, veuillez noter qu'elle ne sera pas automatiquement accepté. Veuillez remplir et retourner le questionnaire au 5031, boul. des Vétérans, Lac-Mégantic, Québec, G6B 2G4. En dernier lieu ce sera le Juge Dumas qui déterminera si vous aurez droit de faire partie du plan de règlement.

Cordialement,

Daniel E. Larochelle, avocat
